

Counsellor

Starting January 2019

If you share our vision for improved community outcomes, that Pacific peoples realise their potential with courage and optimism and enjoy working in a different way. Apply today!

Taeaomanino Trust is seeking to employ a Permanent Full time Counsellor in our Counselling and Addictions Services Team. The person will be a professional and well-trained counsellor who can help clients to see things more clearly and support clients to facilitate positive changes, resolve challenges and difficulties. You will assist, empower and educate men, women and children on a variety of Counselling, Domestic and Family Violence issues and contributors whilst, supporting the ability of Whanau/ aiga and families to counter violent behaviour.

You will have the ability to effectively engage with individuals and families focussing on strengths-based outcomes. This person must have excellent communication skills and is able to work from a bi-cultural base and relate well to individuals and families within their own cultural context.

With a Tertiary qualification (minimum level 7) in Counselling or equivalent and hands on experience at an operational level, you will be an integral member of the Counselling and Addictions services team within Taeaomanino Trust. An understanding of the Vulnerable Children Act 2014 will be an advantage. You will also hold a current full driving license and have exceptional time management skills to meet contractually driven KPI's.

Your relationship management focus will allow you to engage with individuals at all levels, ethnicities and backgrounds to support 'Best Practice' across Taeaomanino and interagency stakeholders. It goes without saying you'll be a high-level communicator capable of establishing rapport and credibility quickly with a diverse audience.
